Please provide proof of competency in the above events by providing results from high school rodeo, NCHA, NRCHA or other sanctioned specialty associations. In the past KQHA has provided financial assistance to cover the cost of 1 entry and 1 stall finances permitting. A membership in AQHYA and KQH YA is required for inclusion on the team in these classes. Information on the AQHYA membership can be found at www.aqha.com and information on KQH YA membership and participation requirements can be found at www.kqha.com on the youth page under the news section. In the event that more than 4 requests are received to compete in a class, selection will follow youth policy 4.

In order to compete at the AQHYA Youth World Show horses must be owned by contestants or their family members and this ownership must be listed in the records for the horse with AQHA. For more information on people considered to be family members please see the current AQHA rule book at www.aqha.com

Please mail completed form along with KQH YA membership if not already a member to:
