Summertime Activities Coming Your Way

There are many ways to get the most from your KQHA membership this summer, so let's start counting the ways!

The KQHA Kansas Kounts program encourages members who prefer to show at open shows the opportunity to earn KQHA year end awards. To participate, sign up and pay the $10 points tabulation fee, (form is online or in the KQHA Winners & Buyers Guide.) This covers any horse that shown from May 1 to October 1.

Kansas Kounts Points are kept by the exhibitor for a variety of classes and in three age groups. The top five placing receive awards at the KQHA Annual Meeting and Award ceremony on January 15, 2011.

Coming your way this August will be the second annual KQHA Showmanship/ Horsemanship clinic for 4-H and open show exhibitors. Date, location and clinicians will be listed soon at www.kqha.com.

New this summer is the KQHA Introductory Horse Show a combination of a open show with a limited number of AQHA classes. This show will offer open show exhibitors the opportunity to show in breed classes. We're still seeking a partner on this endeavor, and details will be at www.kqha.com as they are firmed up!

We heard you! The KQHA State Fair Quarter Horse show is Sunday, September 12, Hutchinson, and will be DOUBLE-JUDGED, responding to members request to make this a better value. Be sure and mark the date on your calendar!

AQHA Launches Full Circle

Do you know someone who enjoys showing horses and would be a great member?

Ask them to join KQHA!

Your referral is the best advertising an organization can ask for. Membership information and applications are at: www.kqha.com

American Quarter Horse owners love their horses – past, present and future, and many want to keep track of those horses even after they are sold.

AQHA developed the Full Circle program to reunite breeders and previous owners with horses they remember well. Through the free Full Circle program, AQHA members will be able to indicate on a horse's registration certificate that if the horse ever becomes unwanted, unusable or simply ready for retirement, the member will – if possible – assist in providing or finding a suitable home.

Originally dubbed Greener Pastures, the program has been renamed Full Circle to more accurately reflect goals of the program when horses that are sold by their original owner may have the opportunity to come full circle back to them. Even in the program's short existence, AQHA has received success stories from customers who have been reunited with horses they once owned. To read more about Full Circle, visit www.aqha.com/fullcircle.

The free, voluntary program does not guarantee a buyback or exchange of money will occur nor that a horse is assured a home – situations can and do change. It allows members to keep track of and provide for the long-term care of horses they've bred or owned. You must be an AQHA member to sign up and enroll a horse in the program. To enroll a horse log in to the member services section at www.aqhamembers.com or by calling the Registration Department at (806) 376-4811.

"AQHA wants to help responsible horse owners," said Don Treadway Jr., AQHA executive vice president. "We believe we can better serve the equine industry and help ensure the long-term care of horses we register with this program. By implementing Full Circle, we begin to fill a void."

The Association will act as a clearinghouse by tracking Full Circle-enrolled horses and AQHA members who have indicated the desire to help.

Your hard work resulted in a GREAT EXPERIENCE for everyone!

KQHYA Youth News

Ruth Knapp, Youth Director

The 2010 AQHYA Ford World Championship theme is Arena of Dreams". Our stall decorations will feature visions from Dorothy's dream in The Wizard of Oz.

Good luck to all our World show qualifiers! We have 31 team members. Find out who's competing on page .

All World show qualifiers will receive stall front bags. To cool down the Oklahoma City sun, several Porta-Cool devices have been rented to help keep everyone more comfortable in the stall area.

Cindy Mills and Katie Ralph coordinated a food drive with youth members collecting goods at the June Hutchison shows. This is part of our community service participation activity.

The All American Quarter Horse Congress entries for NYATT will be submitted in August. Contact me (Ruth) if interested in a team spot.

Two may compete in each class. National world show qualifiers in their respective events will get first opportunity, and then state World qualifiers will be offered a team spot.

The Hope In the Heartland Saturday-Sunday shows will be the first qualifying shows for the 2011 season. Youth members voted, supporting it by a 11-2 margin.

We have your number!

See Paris Nottingham to select your 2010 permanent back #.

Each number is $10, and for an additional donation, Angie and Sydney Scheckel will laminate it at the youth show in April.

You Do What? How To Explain Your Horse Habit

Do you ever get that weird look from people when you say that you show horses? Or, after you receive that "funny look," do you proceed to try to explain what it is you do? Here are some suggestions from my fellow youth members of what to say when in this situation.

Meghan Munday said, "First, they give me a weird look and say, 'What's that?' They think it's barrel racing. So I tell them we have super shiny silvered-up saddles and rhinestone outfits and it's very fancy. We go really slow! Then I say English is with a smaller saddle and faster. Then I say showmanship is like walking your dog but you have a horse instead."

Paris Nottingham said, "When they ask what trail is I tell them it's kind of like an obstacle course on horseback!"

Chelsea Zillner said, "They ask if I jump or go around barrels and if I make money. When I say no to all three, they lose interest."

Rachael Tearney said, "People say, 'All you do is get on the horse and go.' And I say, 'That's just like me saying, in football the ball does all the work.'"

I hope these responses are somewhat helpful to you when you encounter this same situation. If you have any interesting ideas or topics, email or facebook me your suggestions!

Amateur News

Roberta Jaye, KAQHA president

I hope everyone is taking advantage of and enjoying the summer weather. We complained about the cool temperatures one month ago at the KAQHA Show, and look what happened! We did have a very good show and the cool temps made it enjoyable.

Thank you so very much to all who exhibited at the KAQHA Celebrating Kansas Show held in May at the Kansas Coliseum in Wichita. It was very successful and hopefully fun for all. A very special thank you to our show manager, Sue Nickel who worked long hours to keep everything running smoothly, before, during and after the show!

Sue was able to enlist volunteers for most of the duties, so this held our expenses to a minimum. We greatly appreciate all who helped with shavings, trail set up, working the gate, ring stewardship, handing out awards, office help and all the other duties. Your willingness to volunteer is what keeps the show going and growing.

Youth World Contest Participants

Good luck to the following youth who competed at the 4-H state Panorama contest and have been selected to compete at the 2010 AQHYA Youth World show in Oklahoma City.

It wasn't all work at the show—we had time for a Silent Auction, Minnow Races and a great meal. A very special "thank you" to our caterer/organizers, Shannon Justice and Deb Powers. The food and entertainment were great!!

Another event that we are involved with is the Region 8 Championship Horse Show and Experience. The KAQHA members volunteered to distribute shavings for the show—Thank you to all who helped with this. Another special thanks to Sue Nickel and Shannon Justice for securing the Mule and Gator to help us haul the shavings.

Congratulations to all the Select exhibitors who have qualified for the 2010 show, and good luck to the amateurs who are finishing their qualifying points.

Good luck at all the shows and be safe this summer. RJ
