

New AQHA Rule Changes

Modifications were approved to 3 AQHA rules some of which are to take effect immediately. Here are the modifications:

- Rule 441(c): Applying excessive pressure on or excessive jerking of a halter lead shank or an allowed lip chain is prohibited.
- Rule 448(d): defines lip chains in size, dimension, length and type; explains that the lip chain is to rest under the lip and over the upper gum of the horse and not through mouth; and that effective immediately, stallions 1 year of age and older may be shown with an allowed lip chain in open and amateur divisions; effective August 1, 2011, mares 1 year of age and older and geldings 1 year of age and older may be shown with an allowed lip chain in amateur and youth divisions; effective immediately, the following horses may not be shown with an allowed lip chain: weanlings; any horse shown in a performance halter class and any horse shown in a versatility ranch horse conformation class.
- Rule 448 (e) Procedure for Judging the Class: (1) Horses will walk to the judge. As the horse approaches, the judge will step to the right (left of the horse) to enable the horse to trot straight to a cone placed at least 35 feet away. At the cone, the horse will continue trotting, turn to the left and trot toward the left wall or fence of the arena. After trotting, horses will be lined up head to tail for inspection by the judge. The judge shall inspect each horse from both sides, front and rear. (2) A well-mannered horse is a horse that (1) is under control by the exhibitor while tracking and standing for inspection and (2) is reasonably still and flat-footed while standing for inspection.

(3) For purposes of this rule, the term "disruptive behavior" includes, but is not limited to rearing, striking, biting, or backing or falling into others. Judges should disqualify and excuse from the ring prior to final placing a horse that: (A) exhibits disruptive behavior such that it or other horses are unable to be inspected by the judge;

(B) exhibits disruptive behavior such that the safety of it, the handler, an exhibitor, a judge or another horse is endangered; (C) is not under control of exhib; (D) becomes detached from the exhibitor; (E) has fallen and is on its side with all four feet in same direction;

(F) is observed with blood on its body, including, but not limited to, the nose, chin, mouth, tongue, or gums, regardless of cause; or (G) is lame

(4) Rather than disqualify, a judge may choose to fault a horse that is exhibiting disruptive behavior so long as such disruptive behavior does not qualify as being any of the behaviors described in (A) - (E) immediately above.

(5) If a horse exhibits disruptive behavior described in (A) - (E) immediately above and causes other exhibitor(s) to lose their horse(s), only the initiating horse will be disqualified and excused. The decision of the judge(s) will be final.

(6) All stallions 2 years old and over shall be examined to confirm that they have two visible testicles. All mares and stallions shall be examined for parrot mouth. If examination reveals that a horse has parrot mouth or is cryptorchid, such horse should be excused from the ring prior to final placing by the judge.

• Rule 450(m)(3): For 2011 world shows only, exhibitors are allowed to exhibit three junior and three senior, and amateur and youth exhibitors may show three horses in individual worked events.

• AQHA will continue with the current practice that the top 15 exhibitors in a world show class, plus ties, automatically advance to the finals. However, in individually scored classes with more than 80 entries, the next 15 exhibitors (plus ties) will advance to a "shootout round," with the top 5 exhibitors from that shootout round also advancing to the finals. This is a second chance – for the second group of 15 exhibitors. Ties will be broken by AQHA's normal tie-breaking system to ensure that no more than 5 advance to the finals out of the shootout round .

• In classes where the exhibitor is being judged (western horsemanship, showmanship, equitation on the flat and equitation over fences) where there are more than 100 entries, the class will be split in half and the top 15 exhibitors out of each section will come back for a semi-finals round.

AQHA To Implement Leveling Program At Shows

The American Quarter Horse Association is planning a number of program changes to make showing more attractive to horse owners, including additional levels within Open, Amateur and Youth classes; more recognition at existing World Championship Shows and the development of two regional 2012 Novice World Championship Shows.

These changes are being implemented by a Blue Ribbon task force comprised of professionals from all disciplines and areas of the country. The first result was the development of new Rookie classes for open, amateur, and youth exhibitors who have earned less than 10 AQHA points in classes they wish to compete in. Youth and Amateur exhibitors who have earned more than 10 points but less than 25 points continue to be eligible for their respective Novice Youth or Novice Amateur division; however they are ineligible to compete in the Rookie class.

To encourage participation in the Rookie division AQHA will be offering a 90 day trial membership to new participants who have not been members in the previous 5 years. This membership will be for competition purposes only and will not be valid for purposes of transacting business such as registrations and transfers.

The Rookie classes will be offered in open, amateur and youth divisions. To be eligible for a Rookie class, the horse and rider must each have earned fewer than ten points in that class in any division. For example, an exhibitor who has five points in Amateur Western Pleasure would be eligible for the Rookie Amateur Western Pleasure class if his or her horse had also earned less than 10 AQHA points in Open, Amateur or Youth Western Pleasure. However, if the horse had earned 20 points in Senior Western Pleasure, but had never been show in Amateur Western Pleasure, the horse would not be eligible for the Rookie .

In addition to the Rookie level the committee will be fine tuning 2 other new levels, Intermediate and Progressive with more details to be presented later.

Plans are under way to recognize Intermediate exhibitors at the Youth, Select, Amateur and Open World shows in 2011. The top three Intermediate exhibitors in each Youth, Amateur, Select Amateur and Open class will be recognized with a clear globe trophy.

2012 will mark the inaugural presentation of the regional Novice World Championship Shows. There will be an eastern region and a western region to reduce travel costs and encourage novice competitors to participate. Qualification will be by placing at a regional championship show or by earning participation points at AQHA shows.

KQHYA Members Attend YES Conference In Amarillo

Looking to meet new people and make new friends within AQHYA? Interested in running for an AQHYA national office or director position? Need to brush up on your leadership skills and qualities, as well as add new ideas? Just want to have fun? The Youth Excellence Seminar (YES) Conference is the perfect place for all of these activities! Kansas sent seven youth this year to YES for a fun-filled weekend. Paris Nottingham, Jessica Thompson, Tristen Richardson, Amy Fruits, Abbie Dishman, Elizabeth Calander and myself all traveled to Amarillo, Texas to attend YES. Here is what we experienced at the conference.

After attending YES two years ago, I was looking forward to having a good time. The opening night session was a game night. We spread out to different tables and mixed in with youth from other states. We all joined in playing 'Apples to Apples.' We also played the card game 'Spoons' because other tables were playing it and screaming and having a good time. This I can say was quite eventful and I have battle scars to prove, as we had to play with knives instead of spoons (don't worry they were plastic). I thought the opening night activities were a great way to interact and meet new people while having fun.

One activity I especially enjoyed were the two-step lessons we had on Friday. We were able to really see what we could do with our moves on Friday night at the dance. I also liked the entertaining speaker, Shannon Pickard, with his ideas and perspective on leadership. On Friday we also had a chance to meet those candidates campaigning for region directors.

Unfortunately I will no longer be a youth next year so I won't be able to attend, but I encourage all of you to go while you still have the chance. It truly is a great experience and a great way to make new friends within AQHYA. Hopefully more of you will attend next year and some of you want to run for a national officer position!

Maddie Vosburgh

Attending the YES Conference has become a staple in my summer schedule for the past four years, but this year's AQHYA Youth Excellence Seminar in Amarillo, Texas was definitely the best.

Our trip to Amarillo included Maddie, Tristen, Amy, Jessica, Abbie and myself along with chaperones Kari Sue Vosburgh, Kathy Green and Susan Calander. Thank you to those ladies for driving down and giving up your time to attend YES with us!

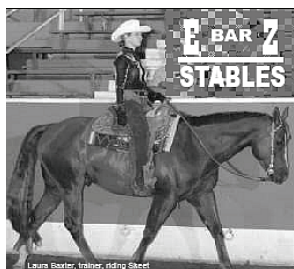

Our first night in Amarillo included a game night and I think I can speak on behalf of all the girls that it was lots of fun and we all met many new people!

Friday morning included campaigning for a spot as one of the three Region 8 Director positions and also included speaker Shannon Pickard a motivational speaker and improv comedian. He definitely kept us all awake and laughing the entire time he spoke. Friday also included two-step lessons and a dance later that night to put our lessons to the test. Friday evening also revealed that I, along with Austin Halvorson of Oklahoma and Logan Pluhar of Texas had been elected as Region 8 Directors for AQHYA.

Saturday morning included the election of the new officer team of AQHYA. The new officers of AQHYA are President Abigail Pait of New Jersey, Vice President Britt Lynch of Georgia, Secretary Chantz Stewart of Arizona, Treasurer Logan Pluhar of Texas and Sentinel Sarah Ann Pendergraft of Arkansas. Saturday afternoon led to very exciting Ag Olympics with activities such as a REAL cow tongue relay, musical chairs with an ice filled tank as a chair, orange peeling relay with a water slide, tug-o-war and an egg toss! We all got a little wet and dirty but had lots of fun! Saturday evening was the closing banquet and the end of the stay for the other Kansas girls. Sunday morning was the first of what will be many meetings for me and the rest of the AQHYA officer and director team, as we discussed things such as goals and committees. I was also selected to be the chairman of the Community Service Committee and I am excited to get started!

I can't wait to go back to YES next year and hopefully see many new faces as well as familiar ones traveling down to Amarillo with me. If you have any questions or suggestions regarding YES Conference of Region 8 in general (Region 8 includes states Kansas,

Paris Nottingham

The YES Conference was a great place for me to learn about leadership and motivation. The directors taught various life skills dealing with taking initiative and allowing you to open up with others. The breakout sessions allowed me to meet new people while having fun together. The motivational speaker we were provided with, Shannon Pickard, taught me many ways of stepping up and trying new things, as well as how to become a great leader.

The conference also offered a dance, where many new faces came together and had a great night. The Ag Olympics were my personal favorite of the weekend. We were divided by our group colors and competed in events such as tug of war, egg tosses, musical chairs, and even the infamous cow tongue relay. Overall, these few days taught me lessons that I will keep in my life to guide me toward success. I encourage any youth to go and be a part of this eventful conference.

Jessica

It inspired me to become more involved in AQHYA. The people were all friendly and I made lots of new friends. I feel like all our directors and chairmen are perfectly suited for their jobs. I had an absolute blast and look forward to attending next year.

Abbie, Amy & Tristan

This is my second year in a row at YES and this year was a lot more fun with the new experiences and activities they added. One of the new things they tried this year for us to meet new people and to learn hands on leadership experience was "break out sessions" where we practiced leadership skills and got to know the people on our teams.

Another good thing they did this year was having speakers talk to us about jobs you can do after you age out of youth. Also, a fun activity they started was the Ag Olympics where we got down and dirty. We did different obstacle courses—including trying to pass a cow tongue with your feet to the next person while you're lying down. I had a lot of fun this year and I hope more can join us next year in the festivities!
